

Please keep the no call list as is!!! With parents that have dementia, it is such a relief knowing that they are not being talked into something they don't understand. I can't screen all of their calls. The no call list has really helped me to help my parents. Please keep the rules as they are now in Wisconsin. Just because I was a past customer doesn't mean I want to be hounded by these companies to return to their business!!!!